Bernard-Henri Lévy is a French philosopher, activist, filmmaker and author of more than 30 books including The Genius of Judaism, American Vertigo, Who Killed Daniel Pearl? and his most recent The Empire and the Five Kings: America's Abdication and the Fate of the World. His writing has appeared extensively in publications throughout Europe and the United States. He was one of the leaders of the "Nouveaux Philosophes" movement in 1976. The Boston Globe has said that he is "perhaps the most prominent intellectual in France today." His opinions, political activism and publications have also been the subject of several controversies over the years. Lévy is co-founder of the antiracist group SOS Racisme and has served on diplomatic missions for the French government.

The PBBF brings in New York Times Best-selling and celebrity authors. For more information about the March 2019 Palm Beach Book Festival, visit www.palmbeachbookfestival.com
